

Use the word in brackets to create a new word that fits into the blank.

The Rise of Cars

Cars have given us freedom. We can go wherever we want to go, _____ (EVER) we want to go. They have also brought us _____ (DEPEND). We don't have to make compromises or take into _____ (CONSIDER) where other people want to travel. Cars provide us with a personalised transport _____ (SOLVE) that's always available. But they have also changed the world we live in _____ (DRAMATIC).

If you had to consider the impact of cars on your town, you would probably think of traffic jams and the _____ (DIFFICULT) of getting around in the rush hour. Or maybe you would think about _____ (POLLUTE) and how _____ (POISON) fumes destroy buildings and roads. But you might not think about any of these things at all.

People buy more and more cars while roads keep getting _____ (WIDE) to cope with the _____ (INCREASE) amount of traffic. Cars are everywhere. They invade _____ (FORMER) green spaces: lawns, flowerbeds or trees that used to line the roads. _____ (PAVE) and streets become thin strips along the front of buildings, further narrowed by _____ (PARK) cars that invade the last remaining inches of pedestrian space.

We all enjoy the facilities that shopping malls and _____ (ENTERTAIN) complexes bring us, because we can use our cars to get there. They are efficient, _____ (CONVENIENCE) and fast. At the same time we are _____ (SAD) by the _____ (LOSE) of our local grocery stores, as well as beautiful houses and community centres. What we must realise is that these changes go hand in hand, and we are to blame.

Preferring our _____ (FREE) to sharing transport with others, we get into our cars to get to our workplaces, do our shopping, or to go out to the theatre. Many people would even drive to go for a walk in the fields. And wherever we drive, we have to park too. Parking spaces are huge areas of land used up by empty cars _____ (WAIT) for hours for their passengers to return. What used to be a vast _____ (GRASS) meadow now becomes a small muddy field, crisscrossed by tire tracks of several vehicles. Cars are changing the _____ (SCAPE). It will never be like it used to be again.

Use the word in brackets to create a new word that fits into the blank.

The Rise of Cars

Cars have given us freedom. We can go wherever we want to go, whenever (EVER) we want to go. They have also brought us independence (DEPEND). We don't have to make compromises or take into consideration (CONSIDER) where other people want to travel. Cars provide us with a personalised transport solution (SOLVE) that's always available. But they have also changed the world we live in dramatically (DRAMATIC).

If you had to consider the impact of cars on your town, you would probably think of traffic jams and the difficulty (DIFFICULT) of getting around in the rush hour. Or maybe you would think about pollution (POLLUTE) and how poisonous (POISON) fumes destroy buildings and roads. But you might not think about any of these things at all.

People buy more and more cars while roads keep getting widened/wider (WIDE) to cope with the increasing (INCREASE) amount of traffic. Cars are everywhere. They invade formerly (FORMER) green spaces: lawns, flowerbeds or trees that used to line the roads. Pavements (PAVE) and streets become thin strips along the front of buildings, further narrowed by parked/parking (PARK) cars that invade the last remaining inches of pedestrian space.

We all enjoy the facilities that shopping malls and entertainment (ENTERTAIN) complexes bring us, because we can use our cars to get there. They are efficient, convenient (CONVENIENCE) and fast. At the same time we are saddened (SAD) by the loss (LOSE) of our local grocery stores, as well as beautiful houses and community centres. What we must realise is that these changes go hand in hand, and we are to blame.

Preferring our freedom (FREE) to sharing transport with others, we get into our cars to get to our workplaces, do our shopping, or to go out to the theatre. Many people would even drive to go for a walk in the fields. And wherever we drive, we have to park too. Parking spaces are huge areas of land used up by empty cars waiting (WAIT) for hours for their passengers to return. What used to be a vast grassy (GRASS) meadow now becomes a small muddy field, crisscrossed by tire tracks of several vehicles. Cars are changing the landscape (SCAPE). It will never be like it used to be again.